

ATTY GENL. WILL NOT STOP SALE OF POMONA

Decision of High Official
Makes Possible Carrying Through of Scheme of Great Import—No Chance
for Reversal

In a decision of far-reaching importance, the attorney general yesterday made possible the promiscuous importation to the state of Arizona of "Pomona". In handing down his opinion that it was not illegal to import Pomona he said that he considered it a "harmless concoction of herbs" and even went so far as to state that he personally recommended its use by the general public.

For some weeks past it has been known to a few on the inside that there was to be a determined effort made to import "Pomona" but it was feared that the drastic conditions of the prohibition statute might interfere with the scheme. A number of influential men formed a pool to supply all the funds necessary to finance the scheme and on Wednesday the question was submitted to the attorney general for his opinion. At first he seemed to feel that it would not be possible to allow its importation either in bulk or single bottles; but after going fully into all the angles of the case he decided that there was nothing on the statute books to prevent it. This means that there is no legal obstacle in the way of the presentation of "Seven Days" by the Country Club on Thursday and Friday nights next week, for the play is practically written around a bottle of "Pomona". Mary Roberts Rhinehardt who wrote the play and "Aunt Selma" the militant financial agent of the fat Mr. Morton, state that it is a harmless concoction of herbs; but Alexander Baker states that it would sell in the Waldorf for 35 cents a dose, and we are inclined to believe him. Whatever it may be, if its like could be found in any drug store there would be a wild demand for it in these dry days. It is as full of spirits as "Seven Days" is full of laughs and there are more laughs in "Seven Days" than there are in three weeks. It is the laziest play that has ever been produced.

Tickets will be on sale tomorrow and they may be exchanged for reserved seats beginning Tuesday morning. Not more than eight reserved seat tickets will be delivered to any one person at the sale. Line forms on this side gentlemen, if you want more than the allotted number, grab your eight and then take your place at the end of the line again.

The dates are Friday and Saturday of next week, April 23 and 24. The place, the Elks theater. Curtain rises at 8:30 p. m.

CONSTABLE CO. STOCK IS SOLD

Prescott and Jerome Capitalists Absorb Stock of Estate—No Change Announced in Policy of the Important Concern

Announcement was made last evening of the sale of the stock in the W. H. Constable Co., Inc. by the estate of W. H. Constable to some of his former partners in the ice and brokerage business here, Prescott and Jerome capital absorbing the interests of the deceased business man. Coincident with this sale, but in no way connected with it, comes the resignation of J. B. Gillespie, for five years manager of both branches of the business, and one of the men who have built it up from a small concern to one of the most pretentious establishments in the city. Mr. Gillespie, who has contemplated leaving the service in order to attend to private business, ever since the death of Mr. Constable, will remain in Phoenix.

Walter Miller of Jerome, owner of part of the stock in the W. H. Constable company was the agent for the Jerome and Prescott capitalists who took over the remaining stock of the estate. Allen Wheeler, administrator of the estate, who has been in the city for several days, left last evening for his home in Los Angeles after the completion of the deal.

The deal, which was consummated at five o'clock, is of a two-fold nature. By it, the northern interests take over the ice plant and all connected with it, while the W. H. Constable company of El Paso becomes owner of the brokerage department.

In the past five years, the ice company has grown from a two-ton a day delivery to an average summer output of 30 to 40 tons a day. The brokerage department has grown and flourished with similar vigor.

Manager Gillespie, prior to his coming to Phoenix, was connected with the Phelps Dodge company at Bisbee, and he left the Cochise city to take over the management of the Constable interests in Phoenix, both the ice plant and the brokerage office.

The identity of the new stockholders has not been disclosed, but it is announced on good authority that no immediate changes will be made in the policy of the company, nor in the business. Rumors that the consolidation of the stock would result in the new owners controlling a string of similar establishments in Arizona have been denied.

MRS. C. H. PRATT HEADS HIGH SCHOOL P. T. A.

Annual Meeting and Election of Officers of Parent Teachers' Association

Mrs. C. H. Pratt was elected president of the High School Parent Teachers' Association at its annual business meeting yesterday afternoon. Mrs. D. D. Crabb was chosen vice president and Mrs. Sadye Ingles secretary-treasurer. The program committee of the ensuing year is composed of Mrs. C. B. Wood, Mrs. W. L. Finney, Mrs. E. D. Ryder and Miss Ethel Rosenberry and S. R. Stone of the high school faculty. There was an informal discussion of the work for the coming season but nothing of a definite nature was decided upon. The feature of the afternoon was a paper on "Should Every Boy and Girl Go to College," written and read by Mrs. R. A. Fowler. Mrs. Fowler declared that a college education was necessary to prepare one for the work of life. She said this was a competitive age and efficiency was its slogan.

THIS S. S. PICNIC TO BREAK RECORD

Pupils of First M. E. Church to Gather at Riverside Tomorrow

The First M. E. Sunday school is preparing for the greatest gathering in the history of their school at Riverside park tomorrow. Committees have been appointed to look after transportation, entertainment and refreshments. Mrs. James Aldrich, chairman of the transportation committee, requests that all automobiles be at the church promptly at 10 o'clock. There will be free transportation for every one to the park.

J. J. Phillips and his committee on entertainment have prepared a great sport program which will include the sack race, the three-legged race, the egg race, potato race, fat men's race, jump ladies' race, fats and skinnies' race and a pie-eating contest, after which the boys of Mr. Phillips' class will challenge the boys of the whole school in a professional baseball game.

Mrs. Warwick Scott and her committee on refreshments are going to furnish ice cream and drinks. Every one is requested to bring something to eat, from a well-filled basket to a dry bun which will be spread on a large table and served in regular picnic style.

Every member of the school is urged to be present for it has been determined to make this picnic the greatest in the records of the school and one that will be talked about for a long time to come.

VALLEY EXPO SPECIAL IS TO BE ABANDONED

Because so many lodges and other organizations are planning excursions to the coast for the two world's fairs this summer, the proposed Salt River Valley special train has been abandoned by the Chamber of Commerce, its promoters.

This action was taken at a meeting of the board of directors yesterday, when it was strongly represented to

STATE MOURNS DEATH OF MAJOR M. G. SEELEY

The funeral of Major M. G. Seeley, who died Wednesday at San Francisco, will take place at Tucson either Sunday or Monday. Detailed arrangements had not been made yesterday, but it is expected that the general staff will attend. Governor Hunt may also go to the funeral. The following order was issued yesterday by Adjutant General Harris:

General Order No. 2
State of Arizona,
Military Department,
Phoenix, April 22, 1915.

1. Major Millard G. Seeley, First Infantry, died at the Southern Pacific Hospital, in San Francisco, California, on Wednesday, April 21, 1915.

2. Major Seeley's military record is as follows:
Enlisted 7th Cal. V. S. V., May 5, 1898; Honorably discharged in November, 1898, on muster out of regiment; enlisted Co. "K," 1st Arizona Infantry, April 2, 1909; commissioned 2nd lieutenant, April 14, 1909; commissioned 1st lieutenant, February 12, 1911; commissioned captain September 23, 1911; detailed for duty on the general staff, August 17, 1912; appointed secretary, general staff, October 12, 1912; commissioned major, 1st Infantry, November 17, 1914. Major Seeley was in command of the 3rd battalion, 1st Infantry, and secretary of the general staff at the time of his death.

3. By the death of Major Seeley, the military force of the state has lost one of its most efficient officers. The customary badge of mourning, a crepe knot, will be worn on the saber hilt for a period of thirty days. The flags on all armories in the state will be flown at half mast until May 21, 1915.

By Order of the Governor,
CHAS. W. HARRIS,
The Adjutant General.
(Official Seal)

The average annual egg yield of each hen in the United States is 70. The record is 203.

The members of the proposed train can hardly be scheduled in such a way as to accommodate all those who will want to join it. The board promised cooperation in arranging the individual excursions.

You know what Cottolene is made of

It is an exact combination of pure ultra-refined cottonseed oil (a grade so high it is not listed in the market) with beef-stearine from selected, high-grade leaf beef suet.

That is what produces the splendid qualities for shortening, frying and cake-making in

Cottolene

There is an appetizing appeal in the thought that your foods are cooked with Cottolene—made of an oil that is far superior to most salad oils and as fine as the best, combined with the choicest part of rich, leaf beef suet.

Order a pail of Cottolene from your grocer today and use it in shortening, frying, or cake-making. It is economical—you use one-third less than of any ordinary cooking fat. Arrange with your grocer for a regular supply.

AMUSEMENTS

CHAPLIN MAKES GOOD IN "HIS NEW JOB"

One question that has been debated thousands of times by all lovers of moving picture comedies, is this, Will Charlie Chaplin make good with the Essanay company or will he fail? It has been demonstrated in many of the larger cities that he has made good and it will be proven tonight with a vengeance when he appears at the Empress in the funniest comedy that he ever produced, "His New Job" in two parts. This picture has caused an overflow in all theaters, where it has been shown and has nearly caused riots in some places because the houses were too small to accommodate the crowds. The Empress will no doubt be taxed for seating capacity so the wise had better come early.

There will also be shown a Broadway star feature, "How Cissy Made Good". In this picture Cissy Fitzgerald is featured assisted by the whole cast of Vi-tograph stars. Think of this cast: Anita Stewart, Wallie Van, Maurice Costello, Sydney Drew, John Bunny, Flora Finch, Kate Price, Lillian Walker, Earl Williams, Leah Baird, Mary Maurice, Julia Swayne Gordon and Edith Storey.

It is safe to say no such a bright collection of stars has ever twinkled in Phoenix, in one show.

The Hearst Selig News Pictorial, finishes the six-reel program with many interesting pictures. This program will be shown Friday, Saturday and Sunday with special matinees, Saturday and Sunday.

Arbuckle, "No Laughing Matter" Impossible

Once more it is to laugh. Why? Because Macklyn Arbuckle comes to the Arizona tonight in "No Laughing Matter." Can one think of anything offering greater opportunities for hilarity than that? Imagine Arbuckle connected with anything that was not funny. No comedy drama that has been offered at the home of Paramount pictures this season has a more genuinely humorous basis than tonight's change of program. It may not be a hurrah of laughter from start to finish but it is of the

ELAINE'S ESCAPE

In the current number of the "Exploits of Elaine" the beautiful heroine has a narrow escape from death because of the adventure in which becomes involved as a result of her temporary disfigurement in Kennedy's faithfulness to her. All of this of course is another evidence of the work of "The Clutching Hand." Elaine sees a picture in which Kennedy is kissing a woman and this naturally incenses her. She accompanies one of the tools of the Hand to a certain house and there finds herself again captured. She is taken to still another house and carried into a sewer where the foul gas overcomes her. Kennedy comes along and finds her there and with trouble she is brought back to life by a new electrical device, only after the regular doctors have given her up. "The Bomb Throwers" is also worth seeing.

"Daughter of the People," Columbia

When the World Film Corporation released "The Daughter of the People," which was recently produced by the Dyreid Art Film Company, out of the most compelling problem plays of the present age, was the result. Miss Laura Sawyer who plays the leading role, has won a place in the hearts of countless thousands. In this particular piece, Miss Sawyer's ability allows her many advantages, of which she has made the best use. A clever trend of plot, interspersed with music and many beautiful scenic effects at once stamps the entire production as a masterpiece that will be in keeping with the Columbia's present policy of showing the best attractions obtainable. The film will have its first showing this evening. In addition to "The Daughter of the People," a Pathe weekly will be shown depicting many late world wide events of unusual interest.

"The Decision"

A comedy-drama telling how a trifling circumstance turned the tide of events and won for an heiress a reversal of the original decision regarding the disbursement of her father's estate is the story told in the American photoplay, "The Decision" at the Lion theater today. The popular favorite, Winifred Greenwood, supported by Ed Coxen and an excellent cast do well in this production which is one of merit. Fay Tincher is also shown today at the Lion in another of those delightful comedies, in which she takes the part of the sten-

GLENDALE

Mrs. Barbara Roberts, formerly of the Washington district, but now of Phoenix, and Mr. J. B. Wallace, of Phoenix, were united in marriage at the Methodist parsonage Wednesday night.

Rev. O. E. Ames of the Christian church took a party to Roosevelt Wednesday. Those making the trip were H. R. Witter, Otto and William McMillan and C. V. Reading.

The regular meetings of the Glendale socialist local, which have been postponed during the revival services, will be resumed again at the high school building Friday night April 30.

Fred Rathbun has received announcement of the death of his father, Frank Rathbun, in Cassopolis, Michigan. Deceased was 73 years of age and had been an invalid for some time.

Funds of the high school are arranging a pantomime performance in the auditorium next Monday evening.

There will be a meeting of farmers in the city hall tomorrow evening for the purpose of discussing ways and means of taking care of waste water.

The Misses Carlyle, who have been guests at the Chesney home several days, have returned to their home in Tucson.

Miss Gladys Allen was the guest of Miss Elades in Phoenix yesterday. The Wednesday club was very pleasantly entertained yesterday at the home of Mrs. Leo Pinnell in Catalina court. Mrs. Pinnell was assisted by Mrs. C. C. Brooks. Those present were Mrs. E. J. Flock, Mrs. H. S. Barnard, Mrs. J. B. Hill, Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. J. B. Walters, Mrs. J. L. Cant, Mrs. J. R. Sheets, Mrs. R. A. Logue, Mrs. George Protzman, Mrs. Roethling, Mrs. John J. Gump, Mrs. LaFayette Myers, Mrs. Ray Stuffer, Mrs. J. M. Pearson and Mrs. J. B. McIntosh. Two weeks later the club will be entertained by Mrs. Myers and Mrs. Lewis at the former's home.

grapher. In "Ethel Gets Consent" Miss Tincher appears to good advantage and is the cause of many laughs. The windup of today's program is a Keystone comedy called "Ye Olden Gaffer," in which Mack Swain is the principal fun maker and it's a reel full of laughs. The entire show today at the Lion may safely be called satisfactory and the kind that will make you glad you saw it.

THREE PRISONERS

two deputies immediately returned to the scene.

A sister of the Leons appealed to Justice Robinson and when Hitch returned and said the officers had no prisoners a searching party of twenty Mexicans was formed which found the bodies in the gulch. Hilario was found stretched out dead and Jose Maria, with rope marks about his wrists and neck sitting propped against a tree almost dead. He had been in the open from Monday night at six o'clock until Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock. The hat of Francisco Leon was found in the gulch but he had evidently crawled off into the brush. The sheriff's are searching nearby to try and find him or his remains.

The Mexicans of Grooterville are terrorized and the sheriff and two physicians are now in Grooterville trying to restore order and bring the dying man to Tucson. He has made a statement telling of watching the officers hang his two brothers and then getting the same treatment himself. Moore and Penter have refused to make a statement until after the inquest tomorrow.

Mrs. Lydia Carr Barnes, formerly a school teacher at Kenosha, Wis., has outlived all of her pupils. She was 101 two weeks ago.
